Part III DETAILED ACTION

Notice to Applicant(s)

1. This action is responsive to the following communications: amendment filed on 1/30/2004.
2. This application has been reconsidered. Claims 1-69 are pending.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371⁹ of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

4. Claims 49 and 50, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Enomoto.

With respect to claims 49 and 50, Enomoto discloses a system for transferring image data to a service provider (12), comprising an image source (20 or 21), and an image pump (which reads on computer 11) configured to receive the image data from the image source by a hard-wired connection (column 6, lines 23-32), and provide the image data to the service provider (column 6, lines 44-50), the image pump (11) being implemented separately from the image source (20 or 21).

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371⁶ of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) do not apply to the examination of this application as the application being examined was not (1) filed on or after November 29, 2000, or (2) voluntarily published under 35 U.S.C. 122(b). Therefore, this application is examined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

6. Claims 62 and 64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Safai (U. S. 6,167,469).

With respect to claim 62 and 64, Safai discloses capturing image data by utilizing an image source (100); providing the image data to an image pump (figure 2) integral with the camera; converting the image data to a format compatible with the service provider (column 5, lines 28-62 and column 7, lines 14-50); attaching user defined instructions and customer account information (column 7, lines 32-50 and column 15, lines 16-27); transferring the image from the image pump to the service provider (column 2, lines 1-3); reviewing the order and providing services to the user (column 9, lines 30-45).

Art Unit: 2626

7. Claims 63 and 65 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Safai in view of Enomoto.

With respect to claim 63, Safai differs from claim 63 in that he does not clearly disclose that the image source is a scanner. Enomoto discloses a scanner as an image source (20). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Safai by the teaching of Enomoto in order to vary the image sources.

With respect to claim 65, Safai discloses including customer account information (column 15, lines 17-27). Safai differs from claim 65 in that he does not disclose determining if the image data and customer information have errors, and requesting the image pump to re-transmit the image data and customer information if errors are detected. Enomoto discloses determining if the image data and customer information have errors (column 7, lines 4-8), and requesting the image pump to re-transmit the image data and customer information if errors are detected (column 7, lines 4-8). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Safai by the teaching of Enomoto in order to improve the image system.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1-48, 51-61, and 66-69 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed 10/4/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. With respect to claims 62-65, Applicant submits that Safai does not disclose reviewing the image data and customer account information for accuracy and format errors. The Examiner disagrees.

Safai discloses checking the user address for format errors (column 9, lines 30-45).

With respect to Applicant's arguments pertaining to claims 49 and 50, Enomoto clearly discloses the claimed subject as discussed by the Examiner in paragraph 4 above.
